FOR LARGER GROUPS

Spruce Room

Ideal for groups up to 80 people, the Spruce Room offers a charming setting for small dinner parties, business luncheons or training sessions. Overlooking our mountain pond, the room features a warm stone fireplace and hearth, vaulted ceilings and in-room service bar. Located on the second floor of the base lodge, the Spruce Room combines the comfort of the mountain suites with added space for larger gatherings.

The Spruce Room is perfect for small receptions or parties.

The Granite Room is perfect for larger parties and more formal affairs.

Granite Room

Located on the main floor of the base lodge, the Granite Room is perfect for larger group outings up to 400 people. Highlighted by the massive granite hearth and fireplace, the room is surrounded on all sides by spacious decks and large picture windows offering scenic views of the mountain and surrounding countryside. During the winter season, the Granite Room can easily be separated off from the Main Lodge to offer your group complete privacy for your special event. It's a natural for wedding receptions, dinner banquets and holiday parties.

Main Lodge

During the spring, summer and fall, the Main Lodge is available for private functions. The expansive lodge includes the Coppertop Lounge, Black Diamond Restaurant and extensive exhibit or meeting space for your event. The Main Lodge is an excellent location for small trade shows and exhibits. The decks and custom tented areas can create a picturesque locale for mountainside barbecues, pig roasts, clambakes plus a variety of outdoor recreational activities.

During the summer months, Wachusett's spacious grounds make a natural setting for large outdoor corporate outings.
